Tyshaune Kincade sentenced to 50 years for Craigslist murder

(Indianapolis, Ind.) Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced today that Tyshaune Kincade, 19, has been sentenced to 50 years in the Indiana Department of Correction for the murder of James Vester on December 4, 2013. Kincade pleaded guilty to Murder in April.

Vester responded to a Craigslist ad regarding an Apple iPad. Upon arrival the victim came into contact with two young males who robbed him. During the robbery one of the young males shot and killed James Vester.

Tryon Kincade, 20, is also charged with Murder and Robbery for his alleged involvement in the incident. Tryon Kincade's trial is set to begin on June 8 in Court 3.

A charge of a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
